Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni's attorney, Mr. Sampan Sermcheep, files complaint at Klong Luang Police Station against forger of document to defame him.

Today (28th April 2016), Mr. Sampan Sermcheep, Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni's attorney, filed an official complaint to the authority as follows:

On 4th June 2015, at about 2:30 p.m., Police Colonel Pakorn Suchivakul of the Department of Special Investigation Office, along with investigative officials, brought copy of a check from Krung Thai Bank (National Housing Authority Branch) No. 010445, dated 15 October 2009, payable to Phrarajbhavanavisudh, for the amount of Baht 100,000,000.00 (one hundred million baht). The check was shown to Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni for him to testify whether he has seen or received this check. Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni testified that he has never seen nor received said check.

It has thus become known that someone has forged his signature on the back of the check in order to cash it. Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni testified that the signature did not belong to him nor was such money deposited into his bank account. His testimony was put on record by the investigators.

Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni was thus aware that someone has falsified his signature and used the check to damage his name. His attorney, Mr. Sampan Sermcheep, was authorized by him to file complaint with the authority. Should anyone attempt to use the above-mentioned check as evidence or refer to it with the intention to defame Ven. Phrathepyanmahamuni's reputation, he reserves the right to file legal action accordingly.
